Revised April 30, 2013

O'Fallon

O'Fallon was founded in 1854 as a depot on the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad and named for the railroad's president, Col. John O'Fallon of St. Louis. Productive coal mines and rich farmland fueled the town's prosperity. O'Fallon was incorporated as a village in 1874 and became a city in 1905. It is the birthplace of actor William Holden and illustrator Bernie Fuchs.

Schools consistently ranked among the best in the state, convenience to Scott AFB, and easy Interstate 64 access to St. Louis all help make O'Fallon one of the fastest growing communities in the St. Louis area. O'Fallon is a progressive city offering its residents easy access to St. Louis amenities such as a world class admission free zoo, museums, live theater, and fine restaurants. Yet, the quaintness and safety found in smaller rural areas are prevalent with fine homes, extensive open spaces, numerous parks, and a historical downtown.

Downtown O'Fallon

“The Organization”

The organization, Downtown O'Fallon, represents the more than 40 business members in the area depicted on the centerfold map. It is a not-for-profit all-volunteer organization. Besides representing its members, it helps beautify and maintain the area with planters and trash cans. Also, during the year the Downtown O'Fallon volunteers conduct “clean-up drives” and family events.

Downtown O'Fallon purchased and restored the caboose on West First Street and makes it available for special events, such as children's birthday parties. It is also responsible for Santa's Hut located at the corner of East First and South Vine streets. Each Christmas the hut is manned by volunteers who provide souvenir photographs of visits with Santa.

Feel free to be a part of Downtown O'Fallon and volunteer – we can always use the help!

Your support of the member businesses is greatly appreciated.
